

Ocean Song

The lady and I
Live by the sea
We long to be lovers
We long to be free
We would go walking
Laughing and talking
When the stars were low
But that was long ago

Now I stare out my window
Lost for a moment
I wonder where I've been
I wonder where love went
Ocean, oh ocean
Please let your motion
Rock me to sleep
And wake me complete
Tomorrow

Oh Ocean
Let your motion
Carry me
To the sea
From the shore
I don't want to be here anymore

Maybe it's better
Left as it lies
Sky full of winter
Heartfelt goodbyes
Maritime blues again
To kick off my shoes again
To feel that summer sand
To have her understand
Me
Oh Ocean
Understand me
Oh Ocean
Understand me
