

Only

Everything on this earth
Is moving too damn fast
Everything in my life
Is racing to the past
Only the lonely feel like this
Only the lonely feel like this

Here in this quiet town
The quiet takes your soul
Everything in your life
Is quietly controlled
Only the holy feels like this
Only the holy feels like this

Half way around the world
The desert sun comes up
Pouring its heat across
The refugees of luck
Only the holy fall like this
Only the holy fall like this

Winter winds swirl the snow
That falls without a sound
I can't remember when
My feet last touched the ground
Only the lonely feel like this
Only the lonely feel like this
