

Late at Night

Late at night
You won't hear a sound
You're sleeping
Tucked away
In suburbia's
Safe keeping
Late at night
Where the street lamp sheds its glare
The place is empty
There's no one there
Late at night
Someone's calling out to you

Late at night
That's when all the wars
Are won and lost
Late at night
Darkness vision of a holocaust
Late at night
I woke up from a nightmare
Brushed the water from my eyes
I swear
Late at night
Someone cried for the world

Late at night
Late at night
Out of mind if you're out of sight
But it's all right
Yes its all right
Late at night

Late at night
That's when all the stars are brightest
Late at night
That's when spirits are the lightest
Late at night
Just pull the curtains
You won't hear anything
That's for certain
Late at night
When someone's calling out for you
