

Tell Her

No I don't believe in magic anymore
When you walk out one
Then in another door
There's no way to conceal
The fiction from the real I know
If you see her won't you tell her
That's a show
I had to go

There's a number on the house
Where I once lived
There's a stranger in the yard
Where I once loved
Yes the neighbourhood has changed
Everything is rearranged
It's true
If you see her won't you tell her
That I flew
Into the blue

There's a river runs along
Like the meter of this song
Turn's a corner
Then disappears
And some times it feels like that
I can't find my way back
And I'm missing
The missing years

All the children still go laughing
One by one
Playing hockey in the streets
And having fun
Yes I know I'm getting old
But there's a story to be told
Begun
If you see her tell her
That I had to run
Into the sun

No I don't believe in magic any more
Where you walk out one
And in another door
There's a river runs along
Like the meter of this song
Turns a corner
Then disappears
And sometimes it feels like that
I can't find my way back
And I'm missing
The missing years
